All prosecutors in the United States are welcome to sign up for Prosecutors' Encyclopedia (PE), a revolutionary new resource that combines 21st Century technology with old fashioned teamwork. PE takes mutual assistance to a whole new level by combining authority and commentary in one easy to access, free resource that everyone can use and add to. PE is "Wiki" but differs from other well known Wiki products in that it is open only to prosecutors and cannot be anonymously edited.

Prosecutors' Encyclopedia:

- Contains every reported federal and state court decision from 1970-present, powered by VersusLaw.
- Features videos of forensic experts testifying in high-profile cases throughout the United States.
- Auto-detects case citations (in prosecutors' articles, and hyperlinks to cases).
- Serves as a nationwide directory of Prosecutors and Expert Witnesses.

PE Contains:

- Thousands of Expert Witness transcripts
- Commentary from fellow Prosecutors
- Case Summaries
- Discussions
- More content and cases are added each week
